Chief Master Sgt. Hensala selected as Wyo. ANG State Command Chief

CHEYENNE – Chief Master Sgt. Doug Hensala has been selected for the top enlisted position in the Wyoming Air National Guard. As the Wyoming Air National Guard's state command chief master sergeant, Hensala will be a member of the senior staff of the Wyoming Air National Guard and represents the issues and concerns of the 1,084-member enlisted force.

Prior to his selection to the top enlisted position, Hensala was the 153rd Aircraft Maintenance Squadron chief. He will assume his new duties Oct. 6 during a change of authority ceremony.

Hensala succeeds State Command Chief Master Sgt. Chuck Breedlove, who retires in November.

"I have had the good fortune to work with the most outstanding people in the Air National Guard and that has enabled me to be afforded this opportunity," said Hensala. "It is truly an honor to represent the members of the Wyoming Air National Guard and I look forward to the challenge of furthering the efforts of Chief Master Sgt. Breedlove and his predecessors."
